

103^D CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

S. J. RES. 200

Designating the week of June 20, 1994, through June 27, 1994, “National Housing Week”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 16 (legislative day, JUNE 7), 1994

Mr. SARBANES introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating the week of June 20, 1994, through June 27, 1994, “National Housing Week”.

Whereas the Federal Housing Administration has helped more than 21,000,000 families realize the American dream of homeownership;

Whereas since its establishment in 1934, the Federal Housing Administration has played a major role in leading America out of economic depression, and continues to contribute to the recovery and health of the Nation’s economy;

Whereas the Federal Housing Administration has set the standards for innovation and consumer protection in the housing industry;

Whereas the Federal Housing Administration symbolizes the Nation's commitment to expanding housing and homeownership opportunities for all Americans;

Whereas it is appropriate to reaffirm the importance of a decent home in a suitable living environment for every American as a national goal; and

Whereas it is appropriate to recognize the 60 years of contributions the Federal Housing Administration has made and continues to make towards achieving the housing goals of our Nation: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That the week of June 20, 1994, through June 27, 1994,
4 is designated "National Housing Week", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation
5 calling upon the people of the United States to observe
6 that week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.
7

○